

Getting to Highly Paid Excellence with Fabienne Raphael

This article provides an insightful interview with Fabienne Raphael, a renowned professional guiding coaches to become highly paid experts.

It's important because it conveys pivotal strategies for success, addressing consistency, mindset discipline, importance of starting regardless of circumstance, and the role of having sincere motives in business.

The benefit lies in gaining practical tools for self-improvement and professional development in coaching or any given business field.

Quote to remember from the Interview

"Discipline and consistency. If you do something enough, you're going to get better at it. Even if you suck right now, eventually you'll figure it out."

What You'll Learn From the Activity

The questions and activities are designed to help you reflect on the key lessons from the article. By interacting with the content, you will be able to internalize and apply the advice shared by Fabienne Raphael in a concrete and personal way.

Activity

Reflect on a time when you demonstrated consistency and discipline. What was the result?

---

---

---

---

What are your fears surrounding starting something new? List them.

---

---

---

---

How can you overcome the fear of getting started?

---

---

---

---

Write a short narrative around the idea of 'Ready is a state of mind'.
In what areas of your life are you waiting for perfection?

How would starting despite perceived imperfections benefit you?

---

---

---

---

True or False: Monetary motives are enough for sustaining a business.
Explain your answer.

What are your motives, beyond making money, in doing what you do?

Write about a time when your motives pushed you to carry on.

What does the quote: "If you're in business just to get some money, you won't stay in business very long" mean to you?

Explain the role of mindset in business sustainability.

Why is having a strong will to influence change necessary in business?

---

---

---

---

Have you sought mentorship in your field? Why or why not?

How can you seek mentorship even if you're unable to invest monetarily at this juncture in your career?

How do you intend to implement the insights you've gained from this interview into your professional life?

From your viewpoint, what is the most valuable takeaway from Fabienne's advice?

List three concrete steps you will take to instil discipline and consistency into your professional life.

---

---

---

---

Identify your greatest barriers to consistency, and devise plans to overcome each of them.

---

---

---

---

Reflect on a time when you acted despite not feeling 'ready.' How did that experience shape your professional journey?

---

---

---

---

Fill in the blank: If I could stop waiting for perfection and start right now, I would _____ .

If your motivations are primarily monetary, what changes can you incite to incorporate a sincere will to change or influence people?

List out the important reasons as to why you're in business or in your field.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Discuss an example (real or imagined) of how you could potentially exchange your skills for mentorship.

How can mentorship help enrich your professional journey?

Which of Fabienne's quotes resonates most with you and why?

Write about how you plan to apply your chosen quote in your daily life.

How has this article helped you understand the potential of becoming a highly paid expert?

What changes would you need to make in your life to conform to Fabienne's insights?

True or False: Consistency is the key to progress. How will you apply this truth in your life?

In what ways can you incorporate Fabienne's wisdom into achieving your own professional goals?